5.1 - Non-exchangeable, non-refundable and non-modifiable in nature

Given the preferential rates on offer from PVCP, acceptance of booked Offers, services and/or Holidays is non-exchangeable, non-refundable and cannot be altered in any way. No requests for alterations and/or cancellations can be taken into consideration. Irrespective of the date on which a booking is cancelled, we retain a penalty payment equal to 100% of the total cost of the accommodation. We therefore advise you not to plan any important commitments the day before departure or the day following your return.

- Length of journey: If due to travel times, the first and/or last day are shortened, no repayment will be made.

⇒ Particular note with respect to air transport

In compliance with the terms of article 211-15 of the Tourism Code, PVCP undertakes to notify you of the identity of the airline that will actually carry you on the flight leg(s) concerned. The main travel companies engaged by the PVCP are as follows:

ARTICLE 7- ARRIVAL AND DEPARTURE

For Maeva, Pierre & Vacances and Pierre & Vacances Premium:

On arrival, you must present the credit card used for the booking, plus valid identification. Failure to comply may result in access to your accommodation being refused by PVCP.

PVCP draws your attention to the fact that failing full payment even after reminders have been issued, you will not be given the keys to accommodation if you present yourself at your holiday destination. For holidays of one week or more, keys will be available from 5 pm on the day of your arrival, subject to the aforementioned payment. These keys must be handed in by 10am on the day of your departure (Saturday in most cases). After this time you will be charged for an extra night.

For short stays, keys are available from 4pm subject to payment of the said sum and must be returned before 12 noon on the day of departure.

For some Residences (including Adagio, hotels; Spain and Partner Residences) arrival and departure times may be different: Information available directly from each Residence or from the website.

You may be requested to complete a police form upon arrival, in compliance with the current laws and regulations in certain countries.

ARTICLE 8- DEPOSIT

All labels: on arrival, you may be asked for a deposit of between €200 and €1,500.

Pierre & Vacances, Pierre & Vacances Premium labels: a deposit, the total of which will be determined according to the type of accommodation, may be requested in the form of bank card payment authorisation (also called "pre-authorisation"). This authorisation request is not a debit but reserves a payment to be made at a future date, authorised by your bank, which will temporarily reduce the limit attached to your bank card to guarantee the possibility of a debit. In certain cases, the pre-authorisation can appear as a debit in your bank account according to conditions fixed by your bank which are beyond our control. This pre-authorisation can be used by PVCP up until 8 days after the date of the end of your stay. The release period of the pre-authorised amount can vary according to deadlines fixed by your bank. For further information, please ask your bank.

Maeva Particuliers label: a deposit, the total of which will be determined according to the type of accommodation, may be requested in the form of bank card payment authorisation. This authorisation will be valid for 8 days following the end of your holiday.

The deposit will be returned to you, with deductions made for any damage caused (this includes damage and/or trouble of any sort in either the private (e.g. cleaning of kitchenette not carried out) or shared parts of the building), unpaid services including optional services used on site (telephone, parking, etc.) as well as loss of the keys to the accommodation provided to you upon arrival.

Information available directly from each residence or on the website.

ARTICLE 9 - MINORS

We draw your attention to the fact that our Residences are not run as Holiday or Leisure Centres in the sense of Law No. 2002-883 of 3 May 2002, and are not suitable for group or individual holidays for minors under 18 years of age outside the family home and unaccompanied by their legal guardians. PVCP reserves the right to refuse access to an apartment, room or villa that has been reserved in ignorance of this provision, for minors aged under 18 years, who are not accompanied by their legal guardians and who report to the residence reception, and to cancel the holiday with immediate effect. Under the same conditions, PVCP may, at any time before the start of the stay, proceed to cancel the booking, if it is discovered that the cottage or room is to accommodate minors aged under 18 years who are not accompanied by their legal guardian.

ARTICLE 10- PETS

Pets are accepted, except for category 1 and 2 dogs defined as dangerous, upon presentation of an anti-rabies certificate and a declaration of suitability for possession in the case of listed dogs, in most of our Residences, on payment of a fixed fee, the amount of which can be found by contacting the Residence concerned or consulting the website. The fee is payable at the destination. They are permitted, on a lead, in the communal sections, but are forbidden around swimming pools. Our partner residences may not accept animals or charge different rates. Contact the residence directly for information. Animals are not permitted in our hotels, with some exceptions (please contact us). For "Adagio": ask the Residence directly.

Article 11- SITE RULES

In order to make your holiday as pleasant as possible, ground rules are displayed in each apartment, room and house. Please acquaint yourself with them and adhere to them. We invite you to take precautions to avoid possible inconvenience: close your picture windows before leaving your apartment, room or house and lock the door. We remind you that the PVCP cannot be held liable for the loss of personal belongings left in your apartment, room or house when you vacate them.

ARTICLE 12- FORMALITIES FOR TRAVEL AND HOLIDAYS ABROAD

For these holidays, including travel, each passenger must have a currently valid identity card or passport. We advise you to check the validity of the identity cards or passports of all members of the party (adults/children/infants), your insurance, and for holidays abroad, currency exchange regulations and any necessary vaccinations. We are not responsible for people who do not comply with all applicable regulations:

- Minors travelling alone: in order to travel abroad, in addition to their valid identity card or passport, minors must have an official authorisation to leave the country signed by their parents or guardians.

- Foreign nationals or holders of travel documents: You must enquire with the consulates of each country about any necessary visas.

ARTICLE 13 –EARLY DEPARTURE / EARLY END TO SPORTS OR LEISURE ACTIVITIES

Early departure or any interruption to sports or leisure activities booked with PVCP does not entitle you to reimbursement from PVCP. However, depending on the package available with the Mondial Assistance policy (see article 18), depending on the cause of departure from the Residence or termination of the activity being duly proven and falling within the terms of the policy, you may benefit from reimbursement on a pro rata basis, from the date of your departure from the Residence or the day of termination of the activity. With respect to early departure, you may benefit from pro rata reimbursement of the holiday only if you have fully vacated your apartment or room.

ARTICLE 14 –POSSIBLE CHANGES TO OUR PROGRAMMES

If circumstances compel us, and only in circumstances of force majeure, outside our control, we may be obliged to change all or some of our programmes (total or partial closure of a Residence or a communal facility such as a swimming pool, restaurant, etc.). In the case of holidays including transport, you will be informed of the times and routes, types of train, plane or boat, subject to last-minute changes. Delays are sometimes inevitable (overcrowded airports, increase in air or rail traffic, strikes, bad weather conditions, etc.). You will be informed of any such circumstances as soon as possible.

CLAUSE 15 - AFTER-SALES SERVICE

If you wish to contact PVCP for anything you may need during your stay, please call the following non-taxable number +33(0) 0173275590. PVCP can be reached at this number from Monday to Friday from 9:00am to 8:00pm, on Saturdays from 9:00am to 7:00pm and on public holidays from 9:00am to 5:00pm.

Our on-site teams are at your disposal during your holiday to respond to your complaints, resolve any problems and enable you to enjoy your holiday to the full. Simply contact them with any requests. After your holiday, any claim should be made:

on our website via the online section:

<https://www.pierreenvacances.com/reclamation>, or by sending a registered letter with acknowledgement of receipt to Groupe Pierre & Vacances Center Parcs - Service Relations Clientèle APS - 11, rue de Cambrai 75947 Paris cedex 19 within two months after the end of your holiday. We remind you that the later you leave it to lodge a complaint, the more difficult it will be for us to handle your claim and resolve it to your advantage. In your letter, please specify the name of the person who booked the holiday, the booking number, the place and dates of your holiday and the type of apartment or room booked in order to facilitate the processing of your claim. Please also enclose all documentary evidence to enable us to process your claim as quickly as possible.

We hereby inform you that following a previously unsuccessful attempt to resolve a dispute filed in writing by our Customer Relations service, you have the possibility to request a mediation process by contacting the Tourism and Travel Mediator at the following address: MTV Médiation Tourisme Voyage - BP 80 303 - 75 823 Paris Cedex 17 <http://mtv.travel>.

In compliance with the decree of 20 December 2017, the vendor or the retailer must provide assistance if the traveller finds themselves in difficulty.

You can make your request via the online section: <https://www.pierreenvacances.com/reclamation> or by sending a letter to the Customer Relations Department (address provided above):

For all requests, a valid proof of identity must be sent by post for security reasons as well as a copy of the communication received in order to facilitate the handling of your request. Further information concerning PVCP's data protection policy and the handling of your personal data, please consult our website www.pierreenvacances.com or request an electronic copy by e-mail

ARTICLE 16 –VALIDITY OF GENERAL TERMS AND CONDITIONS

The reservation of one of our holidays via any channel (call centre, on-line booking, reservation at the reception desk of our residences, etc.) implies acceptance of our general and specific terms and conditions of sale. These conditions are those applicable at the date the brochure was printed and supersede all previous versions. To see the conditions applicable at the date of your booking (in particular, the booking, payment, alteration and cancellation conditions), please refer to the conditions online at pierreenvacances.com. The ceding of your reservation to a third-party requires that you inform us at least 7 days in advance of the identity of the third-party concerned and of their acceptance of the terms and conditions herein. Failing this, access to their accommodation may be refused. General descriptions and photos of apartments are provided for information purposes only. Given the diversity of the PVCP range, there are differences in the layout and decoration of certain apartments and rooms. We present general descriptions of our apartments, sample layout plans, photographs and virtual visits in our catalogue and on our website: these are supplied for informational purposes only. Please do not hesitate to contact us for any further information.

All information on sporting and leisure activities at the resorts and surrounding area is supplied to us by tourist offices and is passed on to you by way of indication. We cannot be held liable if any of these facilities are no longer available at the time of your holiday. For further information on the facilities of the resorts, please contact their respective tourist offices directly. As our catalogue is printed well in advance, please contact your Residence to find out about opening dates, sports facilities (type and quantity), activities and services offered by the Residence, which determine your choice of site. Furthermore, we cannot be held responsible for works undertaken by individuals or local authorities which might inconvenience our customers in the resorts or towns.

ARTICLE 17 –LIABILITY - PRESCRIPTION

- We would draw to your attention the fact that renting a holiday apartment does not fall within the framework of hoteliers' liability. Consequently, PVCP or any company for whom PVCP acts for distribution purposes, cannot be held liable in the event of the loss or theft of or damage to personal effects in our Residences, apartments, car parks or communal areas (ski sheds, etc.)

- Please note that the liability of hotel operators for the rental of accommodation in the hotels is governed by the French Civil Code. The hotel operator can therefore be held liable only within the legal limits in the event of loss, theft or damage to personal belongings in their rooms, car parks or communal facilities (ski sheds, cycle garages, etc.).

- Provision for sums due for services sold by PVCP is not included in the field of application of the hotel statute (article 2272 of the French Civil Code). In exception to Article 2244 of the Civil Code, the sending of a registered letter by PVCP to any client-debtor interrupts the statute applicable in such a case.

In the event of a combination of travel services, that which is proposed is a package in the sense of the EU directive 2015/2302 and of article L. 211-2 II of the French Code of Tourism. You benefit from all the rights granted by the European Union applicable to packages such as replicated in the French Code of Tourism. PVCP will be wholly responsible for the proper execution of the package in its entirety. In addition, as required by law, PVCP holds protection in order to refund your payments and if the transport is included in the package, to ensure your repatriation in the event that PVCP goes bankrupt.

For further information on basic rights under the EU directive 2015/2302, please consult our website www.pierreenvacances.com
