5 - COOKIES

You are informed that, when connecting to the Sites or Applications and when during use of the Services, cookies (small files stored on a user's computer) or other similar or complementary technologies are (or may be) used, subject to the choices expressed by you, where these are permitted. These choices can be modified at any time, by configuring the browser settings or by using specific tools, as shown below.

A cookie allows its issuer, during its period of validity, to recognize the device concerned (computer, tablet, smartphone, etc.) each time the device accesses digital content including cookies from the same issuer. A cookie records information about your computer's navigation on our site (the pages you viewed visited, the date and time they were viewed, etc.) which can be read during your subsequent visits.

Most browsers support cookies, but you can set their browsers to decline them and can delete them whenever they like (<https://us.norton.com/internetsecurity-privacy-how-to-clear-cookies.html>). These cookies facilitate navigation and make the website more user-friendly.

These cookies facilitate navigation and improve the user-friendliness of the website. It should be noted that on customer accounts, only cookies necessary for navigation and audience measurement are set.

You may choose to accept or reject all or part of the cookies, with the exception of browsing cookies, which are necessary for the operation of our Site.

Refusal of other cookies (audience, personalization, advertising) will not prevent you from accessing our Site although some of its services and sections may work in a degraded manner or you may be deprived of an optimized user experience.

We strive to provide you with the best experience during your browsing on the site, by customizing the content of the pages according to your course and interests when browsing, as well as by personalizing the messages on the site with current commercial offers. All these animations on the site are managed with personalization tools; the refusal to accept marketing, audience and personalization cookies will prevent us from displaying these highlights and will lead us to provide you with standard content without animation.

1°/ Types of cookies:

- a) Strictly necessary cookies: browser cookies

Browser cookies improve the performance of the Services in order to enable you to make a better use of the Site and Applications. These cookies are essential as they allow you to crawl our websites and use its features (for example, they allow you to access secure areas of our websites). Without these cookies, the services you have requested (such as the search) cannot be provided to you.

These cookies do not require your prior information and consent to be stored on your terminal.

More precisely, these navigation cookies allow to:

- ✓ Adapt the presentation of the Site and Applications to the display preferences of the terminal (language used, display resolution, operating system used, etc.) when you visit the Site and Applications, depending on the display or reading hardware and software that the terminal contains;
- ✓ access to a restricted area, subject to login and password confirmation;
- ✓ To store information related to the forms completed by you on the Site and Applications or to information that you have chosen on the Site or Application;
- ✓ To offer you access - through your login - to your account including, but not limited to, the shopping cart, your payment, the orders history, or any other area restricted to customers;
- ✓ To implement security measures, for example when you are asked to reconnect to content or a Service after a certain period of time has elapsed.

The publisher of the social network concerned may identify you through the sharing buttons, even if this button was not used when consulting our site/application. Indeed, this type of application button can allow the social network concerned to track your navigation on the site, solely because of the activation of your account on this social network (open session) on your terminal during your navigation on the site.

The PIERRE ET VACANCES - CENTER PARCS Group has no control over the process used by social networks to collect information related to your navigation on the site and associated with the Personal Data they hold. You are invited to read the policy for managing social network cookies on the sites concerned. These protection policies must in particular allow you to exercise your choices with these social networks, in particular by setting up your user accounts for each of these networks.

f) "Flash"© Cookies from "Adobe Flash Player"™:

"Adobe Flash Player"™ is a computer application, by Adobe Systems Software Ireland Limited, une owned by Adobe Systems Inc., United States that allows the rapid development of dynamic content using the "Flash" computer language.

Flash (and similar applications) memorizes the settings, preferences and use of this content using a technology similar to Cookies. However, "Adobe Flash Player"™ manages this information and the your choices via an interface different from that provided by its browser software.

Insofar as your terminal is likely to view content developed using the Flash language, you can access your Flash cookie management tools directly from the website <http://www.adobe.com/fr/>

For more information on how Adobe processes your data, please visit:
<https://www.adobe.com/privacy/policy.html>.

2°/ Rejecting cookies by setting your browser

You may configure your browser in such a way that cookies are stored in the terminal or, to the contrary, that they are rejected, either systematically or according to their issuer. You may also configure his browser software in such a way that the acceptance or rejection of cookies is offered to you from time to time, before a cookie is likely to be stored in your terminal.

For the management of cookies and user choices, the configuration of each browser is different. It is described in the browser's help menu, which will tell you how to change your cookie preferences.

The PVCP group has set up a consents management platform allowing visitors to manage their choices regarding cookies placed on their devices.

If necessary, you are informed that access to certain services and sections of the site may, in this case, be altered or even impossible.

At any time, you may choose to express and modify your wishes regarding cookies.

Finally, you can connect to the Youronlinechoices site, offered by digital advertising professionals grouped within the European association EDAA (European Digital Advertising Alliance) and managed in France by the Interactive Advertising Bureau France.

You will thus be able to know the companies registered on this platform and which offer the possibility of refusing or accepting the cookies used by these companies to adapt to your information the advertisements likely to be displayed on his terminal: <http://www.youronlinechoices.com/fr/controler-ses-cookies> .

The length of time during which the cookies are stored varies depending on the type of cookie. We mostly use cookies that self-destruct after the connection has ended, in the case of so-called "session or navigation" cookies. Advertising cookies and behavioral analyses have a variable lifespan.

A log file also allows us to log all accesses to our web pages or downloads of the various files available on our sites for a period of 6 months. Finally, information about your consent to cookies is stored for a maximum period of 13 months.

3°/ Cookies subject to consent

Some cookies are subject to consent. Your consent will be asked when browsing. You will always be able to change your choices later. Cookies not subject to consent will be affixed in the absence of opposition from you on the cookie management screen.

If your browser allows it, you can also prevent the record of cookies by setting your browser, as indicated above.

6 - RIGHTS OF INDIVIDUALS

In compliance with the Regulation you have the right to ask the Data Controller/us for access to the Personal Data that relates to you (Art.15 GDPR), the rectification (Art.16 GDPR) or erasure of this data/right to be forgotten (Art.17 GDPR), or a limitation of the processing of your Personal Data (Art.18 GDPR) and the right to the portability of this data (Art.20 GDPR). When we process your Personal Data, you can also object to such a processing for reasons pertaining to your own particular situation (Art. 6 (1). e) ou f) GDPR).

In case of opposition, your data will not be processed, required thanks to legal constraints, an exploitation necessary for the execution of a contract to which you are a party, information necessary in the framework for the defense of a right to justice or an absence of risks for your fundamental rights and freedoms. You may object to the use and processing of your data for promotional purposes at any time.

For Personal Data not indicated as mandatory and which we process on the basis of your consent, you have the right- at any time - to withdraw your consent. Please be informed that the withdrawal of your consent has no retroactive effect on the processing that has been carried out on this basis, prior to the said withdrawal.

These rights are more fully described on the website of the CNIL: <https://www.cnil.fr/fr/node/22352>

You may also have additional rights provided by your national legislation, such as the definition of directives related to the retention, erasure and communication of your Personal Data after your death. Regarding telephone canvassing, you have a specific right of objection by subscribing to the BLOCTEL list. You also have the right to oppose any advertising solicitation by registering on the ROBINSON list, within the limits of its scope, or any other list available in your country.

To exercise your rights, you can contact the customer service department of the company you dealt with initially:

- by clicking here
- or by postal mail, sent to the company's registered office, as it appears in the "Legal information" section.

To allow a rapid processing of your request, and protect your privacy, please indicate your family name, given names, address and customer number and/or case number if you have one. In case of doubt remaining concerning your identity, it may be requested for you to provide any valid proof of ID (particularly CNI, passport, residence card, to be send exclusively by postal mail).

The PIERRE ET VACANCES - CENTER PARCS Group has nominated a Data Protection Officer who you can contact in case of difficulty, via the contact form available here or by post to Groupe PIERRE ET VACANCES CENTER PARCS, L'Artois - Espace Pont de Flandres, 9 rue de Cambrai- 75947 Paris Cedex 19.

You also have the right to file a complaint with the Commission Nationale de l'Informatique et des Libertés (CNIL)(www.cnil.fr) or the Monitoring Authority within your place of residence.

7 – SECURITY MEASURES

Taking into account the development of technology, implementation costs, the nature of the Personal Data to be protected as well as the risks to the rights and liberties of people, the PIERRE ET VACANCES - CENTER PARCS Group uses all appropriate technical and organisational measures to ensure the confidentiality, integrity, availability and robustness of the Personal Data collected and processed as well as a level of security tailored to the risk.

In particular, to guarantee your security and ensure greater confidentiality, the websites use the encryption protocol SSL (Secure Socket Layer).

During transfer of the information on the network, your bank card number, as well as all information entered in the different forms, is encrypted automatically. The SSL encryption system allows the information to be encrypted automatically before its transmission on the network. Once it has arrived on our server, the bank data will be decrypted automatically using a unique SSL key that allows your browser to establish a connection with our website and to transparently negotiate a secure communications channel.

ARTICLE 8 - MODIFICATIONS TO THE DATA PROTECTION POLICY

If this Policy is modified or if legal or regulatory texts require it, the modified version will be published on our websites and will be effective upon publication.

We therefore ask you to refer to it each time you visit so you will be aware of the latest version, available permanently on our websites.
